The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 15, to Saturday July 19, 1746.

Kenſington, July 19.

THE following Addreſs of the Lieutenant-Governor, the Bailiff and Jurats, the Dean and Clergy, and other principal Inhabitants of the Iſland of Guernſey, having been tranſmitted to the Right Honourable the Earl of Hartford, was preſented to his Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, who was pleaſed to receive the ſame very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Lieutenant Governor, the Bailiff and Jurats, the Dean and Clergy, your Majeſty's Officers, and other principal Gentlemen in this Iſland of Guernſey, ever faithful and loyal, beg Leave to make an humble Tender of our zealous Congratulations, on the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms, in the Defeat of your rebellious Subjects.

Their ungrateful and traiterous Attempt to interrupt your Majeſty's moſt juſt Government; to deprive your Kingdoms of your neceſſary and powerful Protection; and to bereave your People of all elſe that in Life can be dear to them, ſo deeply affected us at the Diſtance we are, that nothing then could alleviate our Concern, but your Majeſty's known Steadineſs; and that chearful active Duty, which, at that Time, ſo eminently and ſo unanimouſly exerted itſelf amongſt the Great, and the ſenſible Part of your Subjects: An Act which will ſhine in Britiſh Annals, and ever redound to their Honour, who bore a Share in it.

Your Royal Wiſdom has at length been crown'd with a happy Iſſue, and your paternal Care has relieved us of our Anxieties.

As Providence never fails to direct the deſperate Intentions of evil Men to ſome good and uſeful End; ſo we have the Joy to ſee the helliſh Deeds of thoſe Miſcreant Jacobites become inſtrumental to our future Peace and Security, as well as to their own Shame, and the Confuſion of their contemptible Abettors; by giving Birth to freſh and pregnant Proofs of the Strength of your Hands, at that Juncture of Time.

Permit us, Sir, to expreſs the juſt Senſe we have of your Majeſty's high Regard, in your gracious parting with, and ſending your own Son the Duke to the Reſcue of your invaded People. The diſtinguiſhing Marks of Valour and Conduct which his Royal Highneſs (ſo ſoon after his tender Years become the darling Hero of the Britiſh Nation, and the Curb of its Enemies) has manifeſted in his important Commiſſion, call forth our loudeſt Applauſe: And we heartily congratulate your Majeſty on the pleaſing Proſpect of his confirming and further extending the Glory of your auguſt Houſe.

That Almighty God may bleſs your unwearied Labours for the Good of Mankind; that your Majeſty may long live to ſettle the Repoſe of Europe, be the firm Support of your Allies, the Scourge of the proudeſt of your Enemies, and the Father of your People; and late tranſmit the Imperial Scepter of theſe your Kingdoms down to your Royal Off-ſpring, from Son to Son, till Time be no more, are the earneſt and fervent Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt loyal and moſt dutiful Subjects.

Guernſey, June 28, 1746.

The following Addreſs of the Portreeve, Freeholders, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Aſhburton, has been preſented to his Majeſty by John Harris and John Arſcot, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Dun-

Dunmore, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Portreeve, Freeholders, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Aſhburton.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeve, Freeholders and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Aſhburton, humbly beg Leave, with the moſt joyful Hearts, to congratulate your Majeſty on the glorious Victory lately obtained over the Rebels in Scotland, by his Royal Highneſs the illuſtrious Duke of Cumberland.

As your Majeſty's giving the Command in this important Affair, (an Affair attended with the moſt imminent Danger) to this heroic Prince, is the ſtrongeſt Demonſtration of that paternal Care and Affection which you have always expreſſed for your People; ſo does it demand the ſincereſt Thanks of every Briton: To his Courage and Conduct (under God) we owe our Preſervation from the Ravages of the execrable Tools to the Diſturbers of the Peace of Europe: Deluded Wretches! who would introduce into this happy Iſland Slavery and Chains, inſtead of the greateſt Bleſſing of Heaven, which we at preſent enjoy, Liberty.

The Pleaſure that ariſes in our Minds on conſidering our preſent Happineſs, an Happineſs compoſed of innumerable Bleſſings under your Majeſty's beſt of Governments, which, with our All we ſhall be for ever ready and willing to defend; and the Proſpect we have of its being tranſmitted down to our Poſterity by your Royal Deſcendants, is beyond the Power of Words to expreſs.

With the utmoſt Sincerity and Fervency we pray, that the Almighty will confound the Devices of all your Majeſty's Enemies, and give you a long and happy Reign over us; that you may live to triumph over the Bigotry of Rome and the diabolical Policy of France; that he will pour down the choiceſt of his Bleſſings upon your Royal Family, and grant that there may be never wanting one of your auguſt Houſe to ſit upon the Throne of theſe Kingdoms till Time ſhall be no more.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Magigrates, and Citizens of the City of Lichfield, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl Gore, their Recorder, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Dunmore, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Magiſtrates, and Citizens of your Majeſty's ancient and loyal City of Lichfield.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, with Hearts full of inexpreſſible Joy, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the late glorious Succeſs of your Arms againſt the united Force of inſolent Invaders and traiterous Subjects. We are ſenſible that our preſent Deliverance, next to the Bleſſing of Almighty God, is owing to the Conduct and Bravery of that heroick young Prince the Duke, and ſhall think ourſelves juſtly chargeable with the blackeſt Ingratitude, if we do not always moſt thankfully acknowledge your Majeſty's fatherly Goodneſs to us, in appointing him Commander of your Troops, and expoſing your own Royal Son for the Preſervation of the People committed to your Charge.

The preſent and future Happineſs of us and our Deſcendants, are neceſſarily and inſeparably connected with the Eſtabliſhment and Continuance of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Majeſty and your Royal Family, to whom we are already indebted for the full and free Enjoyment of all our religious and civil Rights: And as the Cauſe of Virtue and Liberty, which your Majeſty has ever eſpouſed and ſupported, is the peculiar and favourite Care of Heaven, we truſt the ſame good Providence, which has hitherto watched over and preſerved your Majeſty, will ſtill continue to crown all your Undertakings with Succeſs and Glory; ſo ſhall your Throne be eſtabliſhed in Righteouſneſs and Peace, and the Bleſſing of your auſpicious Reign, be tranſmitted to lateſt Poſterity.

Given under our common Seal this 5th Day of July, 1746.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Town of Ludlow, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Sir William Corbett, Bart. one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Dunmore, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty monalty of the Town of Ludlow, humbly offer our Congratulations to your Majeſty, upon the Succeſs of your Arms, under the auſpicious Conduct of his Royal Highneſs the Duke, who hath ſo happily exerted the Courage, hereditary in the Princes of your illuſtrious Houſe, in the Defence of your Majeſty's Crown, and of the Rights and Liberties of all your People.

Whatever Miſchiefs we have ſuffer'd from this odious Rebellion, our Confidence is, that (as Providence often produceth Good out of Evil) from hence your Majeſty's Throne will be more firmly eſtabliſhed, and your faithful Subjects for ever delivered from the laſt of all human Evils, Popery and Arbitrary Power: that from hence the World will more evidently ſee, how dear your Majeſty's Perſon and Government are to all good Men, and that none are Traytors to your Majeſty, but Barbarians, Enemies to all civil Society.

Your Majeſty's Town of Ludlow hath been in all Ages, renowned for Loyalty to the Crown, and enjoys moſt ample Priviledges, the Rewards thereof; and we now beg leave to vow the ſame ardent Zeal and Fidelity to your Majeſty, which were ever ſhew'd by our Predeceſſors, to the beſt of your Majeſty's Royal Anceſtors.

In Witneſs whereof we have hereunto ſet our common Seal, the firſt Day of July, in the twentieth year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Kendal, in the County of Weſtmoreland, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Daniel Wilſon, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Dunmore, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Kendal in the County of Weſtmoreland, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, with the higheſt Tranſports of Joy, humbly beg leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the late moſt glorious Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms, under the auſpicious Conduct of his Royal Highneſs the Duke, at a time when no leſs than the Subverſion of our moſt excellent Conſtitution in Church and State was attempted by ſome of your Majeſty's deſperate and traiterous Subjects, inſtigated to an unnatural Rebellion, and ſupported therein by the ambitious and perfidious Diſturber of the Tranquillity and Repoſe of Europe, and inveterate Enemy to your Majeſty's Perſon and the Britiſh Conſtitution.

We cannot ſufficiently applaud your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Paternal Care and Regard for the good and ſafety of your People, in appointing General, a Prince of the moſt heroic Valour and military Accompliſhments and amiable in all Reſpects; and we are at a Loſs for Words to expreſs to your Majeſty our Gratitude for making ſo wiſe and happy a Choice.

As the late Victory over the Rebels was, under the Divine Providence, owing to the diſtinguiſh'd Bravery, Conduct, and indefatigable Application of his Royal Highneſs, the higheſt Reward will fall ſhort of his Merit for that important Service, performed by him to your Majeſty and the Kingdom, whereby our Religion, Laws and Liberty have been ſecured and preſerved; but we are laid under a particular, and the ſtricteſt Obligation of expreſſing our moſt grateful Acknowledgements, and celebrating his Praiſe for reſcuing our Town from the Flames, by the Celerity of his March after the flying Rebels, who threatned us with Deſtruction for ſhewing our Loyalty and Affection to your Majeſty; the Defender and Protector of our Religion and Liberty; and it is with Regret we reflect that we were prevented by the Shortneſs of the Time, and general Hurry and Confuſion amongſt us, from paying our Reſpects to our illuſtrious Deliverer, in a Manner ſuitable to his moſt eminent Merit and Dignity during his Stay with us.

We have nothing further to add, than our moſt ardent Wiſhes that your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous, a Terror to your Enemies, and a Confort and Support to your Friends, and your loyal Subjects; and that this Nation may never want a Succeſſion of Proteſtant Princes of your Royal Houſe, following your Majeſty's ſhining Example, to reign over a free and happy People.

Given under our common Seal the 30th Day of June, 1746.

The following Addreſs of the General Convention of Royal Burrows in Scotland, has been preſented to his Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Argyll: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the General Convention of Royal Burrows in Scotland, with Pleaſure embrace this firſt Op-

Opportunity, at their ſtated annual Meeting, of expreſſing the Overflowings of Gratitude for your Majeſty's paternal Care, in appointing a Royal Commander to animate the Troops, and lead them on to Victory. No ſooner did a young Hero of your illuſtrious Houſe appear at the Head of the Army, than the Rebels, ſtruck with a Pannick, exchanged their vain Hopes of Succeſs for a precipitate Flight, while every true Friend to Religion, Liberty, and their Country, felt inexpreſſible Joy reſulting from the near Proſpect of having all that is valuable, as Men and Members of Society, ſecured to them under the auſpicious Reign of the beſt of Princes.

The ineſtimable Bleſſings procured to Great Britain by the happy Revolution, and inviolably maintained by the illuſtrious Sovereigns of your auguſt Houſe, make your faithful State of Burrows, with double Joy, unite with the general Voice of the Nation, in expreſſing our moſt ſincere and hearty Congratulations to your ſacred Majeſty, on the late glorious Victory, gained by his Royal Highneſs the Duke, over the Pretender's Son and his deluded Followers, who, inſenſible of the Happineſs of a mild Adminiſtration, aimed at exchanging Liberty, and a Government by Laws, for Slavery and arbitrary Power.

The happy Effects of this Victory, the Rebellion being now entirely ſuppreſs'd, are ſenſibly felt by the State of Burrows, who ſuffer'd ſeverely during this unnatural Rebellion; but with Peace and Tranquility, Trade and Commerce, cannot fail to revive; and while the induſtrious quietly enjoy the Fruits of their Labour, we are perſuaded every loyal Subject will be ſenſible of your Majeſty's Royal and Fatherly Care of this Part of your united Kingdom; and that the State of Burrows will ever look on themſelves as bound by the moſt ſacred Ties of Gratitude to ſupport your Majeſty to the utmoſt of their Power againſt foreign and domeſtick Foes, till by Divine Aſſiſtance, you triumph over both, and not only ſecure the Trade and Happineſs of Great Britain, but prove the Protector of the Proteſtant Intereſt and Liberties of Europe.

Sign'd in Preſence, and by Appointment of the General Convention of Royal Burrows, Edinburgh, And. Cochrane, Preſes.

The following Addreſs of the County of Linlithgow, has been preſented to his Majeſty by George Dundas, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Dunmore, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly,

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the County of Linlithgow.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Sheriff, Freeholders, and other Heritors of the County of Linlithgow, beg leave moſt humbly to congratulate your Majeſty upon the late glorious Succeſs of your Arms againſt the Raiſers of a moſt wicked, unnatural and unprovoked Rebellion, which under the Bleſſing of God, by the prudent and wiſe Meaſures taken by your Majeſty, and the Conduct and Valour of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, is now, we hope, entirely defeated and extingiſhed.

The many and great Bleſſings theſe Nations have enjoyed ſince the Acceſſion of your Royal Family to the Crown, with the general Senſe of your Majeſty's loyal Subjects of their Happineſs under our preſent Eſtabliſhment, ought to have deprived the moſt ſanguine of our Enemies of the ſmalleſt Hopes of being able to diſturb your Majeſty's Government; and the Fruitleſsneſs of their late Attack, muſt now convince the whole World, how vain every Attempt will prove againſt a Britiſh King, whoſe Throne is eſtabliſhed in the Hearts of Subjects, ready at all times to ſacrifice their Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of his ſacred Perſon and Government, and in the Support of the beſt of Conſtitutions.

Such we moſt humbly aſſure your Majeſty always were, and ever will be the true and ſincere Sentiments of our Hearts, ariſing from an unviolable Attachment and Loyalty to your Majeſty and your Royal Family; and may the Almighty grant that after a long and happy Reign, you may tranſmit to your Royal Heirs theſe Virtues which are the Sources of that Happineſs we enjoy under your auſpicious Government, and which we pray for the Continuance of to our lateſt Poſterity.
